

(Aerial) acrobatics try out and dive deep

3rd Aerial Arts Festival Austria from 29th August to 1st September in Vienna's F23 - only a few TICKETS available

From Thursday, August 29 to Sunday, September 1, 2019, the Aerial Arts Festival Austria (AAFA) will take place for the third time in the F23 in Vienna-Liesing. The festival program offers a lot of acrobatics in numerous introductory and star workshops with 23 (inter) national certified trainers for both beginners and professionals. Evening events and wellness culinary provide for festival atmosphere.

Explore: 27 open trial classes

Especially for those who know air acrobatics from the circus or TV and always wanted to try "that" without booking a course lasting several weeks, the AAFA is the perfect opportunity. Whether Aerial Silk, Aerial Hoop, Bungee Dance, Aerial Rope, Aerial Hammock - with the cheap festival pass for 40 € / day (100 € / 3 days) you can participate in 27 trial workshops. Those who prefer solid ground under their feet or hands, are in good hands at Hula Hoop, Acro Yoga, Contemporary Dance or Thai massage workshops. The Festival Pass also includes free admission to the opening vernissage and Open Stage Night on Thursday evening as well as to the entire festival area - including Gastro Area and Wellness Corner.

Dive deep: 26 three-day workshops

From classical aerial disciplines (silks, hoop, rope, hammock, straps, yoga, theater) to newcomer trends such as Cyr Wheel, Flying Pole or Bamboo Flow - even experienced aerialists will get their money's worth at the festival. In addition to the classic Aerial disciplines, this year there will be special focal points for further development - from choreography and theater to technique to anatomy and rigging workshops, the colorful program offers a diverse selection of highlights, which are presented for the first time in this form Austria are offered.
